No. 1772

To

Rai Bahdur A. Sreenivasa Charlu

Muzroy Secretary to the Government of Mysore

Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that pensioned Jemadar Mohomed Ali of the Mysore Cavalry has frequently petitioned this Office for an increase in either pay or pension. I regret that the pension rules do not permit of any increase to his pension being recommended but I understand that he holds the appointment of Khaji in the "Gumbuz" at Seringapatam and as the Gumbuz is under your control perhaps you may be able to help him in sanctioning a small increase to his pay. He worked in the Military Department for a period of 37 years and retired with an unblemished character.

I have the honor to be

Sir,

your most obedient servant
